

Reynolda

EQUITY PARTNERS

SEPTEMBER
2022

Synoptek®

September 27, 2022 – Reynolda Equity Partners portfolio company, Synoptek (or the “Company”), was sold to investment firm Quad-C Management (or “Quad-C”) today.

Founded in 2001 and headquartered in Irvine, CA, Synoptek is a leading full-service business technology solutions provider. The Company partners with customers to envision, transform and evolve their businesses to achieve better results using technology. The Company’s global technology services implementation and management platform enables customers to accelerate their use of technology and reduce technology operating expenses.

Synoptek experienced significant growth over the course of Five Points’ investment, both organically and as a result of five strategic acquisitions which helped increase the Company’s delivery capacity in various geographies and meaningfully expanded its portfolio of services. Today, Synoptek employs over 1,000 technology professionals spanning 12 offices globally. The demand for Synoptek’s services is fueled by growing business dependence on technology and the widespread adoption of cloud platforms such as Microsoft Dynamics, Salesforce, ServiceNow, Azure, AWS, Microsoft 365, and Google G-Suite.