A PORTFOLIO COMPANY OF REYNOLDA EQUITY PARTNERS, HAS PARTNERED WITH

Specialty Appliances announced today that, in conjunction with founders Kendall Lamp and Daryl Mathias, it has completed an acquisition of Accutech Orthodontic Lab (“Accutech” or the “Company”).

With locations in Midlothian, VA and Suffolk, VA, Accutech is a leading regionally focused orthodontic laboratory, manufacturing a variety of customized appliances for use in orthodontic treatment. The Company has a highly diversified customer base and a strong reputation among orthodontists for its product quality and customer service.

The combined companies will be able to further diversify their respective customer bases and product portfolios, realize purchasing and manufacturing synergies, and share knowledge, ideas, and best practices with each other.

This transaction marks Specialty Appliances’ first add-on acquisition and intends to complete other add-on acquisitions in the near future. The Specialty Appliances team is excited for the combined Company’s continued growth.
