Dental Laboratory

Oklahoma's Premier Full Service Lab

Specialty Appliances (or the "Company"), a portfolio company of Reynolda Equity Partners ("Reynolda"), has acquired Brewer Dental Laboratory ("Brewer"), expanding into new product categories and broadening its geographic reach in Oklahoma.

Specialty Appliances is a leading orthodontic laboratory focused on the manufacturing and development of customized orthodontic and specialty dental appliances and the distribution of consumable orthodontic products. In business for over 40 years and serving customers across the entire nation, the Company supports a highly diversified and recurring customer base and maintains a stellar reputation among orthodontists and specialty dental practitioners for the Company's innovation, digital manufacturing capabilities, product quality and customer service.

Brewer is a specialty dental lab that has served dentists throughout the Tulsa area and across the U.S. since 1970. Brewer provides practices with the latest removable and fixed technologies, and highest quality products for patients. Brewer offers a variety of solutions for edentulous patients, meeting the growing demand for removable prosthetics. Their team of highly trained experts also provide customized design and treatment plans for patients, and Specialty Appliances is excited to partner with Adam Brewer on the next phase of Brewer's growth.

Since its partnership with Reynolda, Specialty Appliances has: (i) completed multiple acquisitions of strategic orthodontic and specialty dental-focused labs, (ii) successfully launched multiple new product categories, and (iii) invested in advanced manufacturing capabilities to drive efficiencies, improve quality, and ensure scalability. Reynolda has also supported numerous operational priorities, including the launching of a consumable product distribution segment, an ERP system implementation, the development of a new product ordering portal, and numerous other growth investments.

Marshall White and Blake Bahos lead the Specialty Appliances investment for Reynolda.
